

Boston Boxing Club Announces Its First Bout

Armory A. A. Opens With McFarland and Murphy Fight.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—At last, after weeks of badly founded rumors, the new Armory Athletic Association is ready to officially announce its first boxing meeting. The club will be opened on Tuesday evening, January 7, and the feature event of the program will be a twelve-round bout to a decision between Packy McFarland, of Chicago, and Tommy Murphy, of New York.

The wonderful career of McFarland in the ring during the past few months has been the amazement of followers of boxing, and as the lad has never exhibited his skill in the East, it is natural that there is a large amount of curiosity to see him perform. All the boys who have heretofore been regarded as good ones, including Steve Kennedy, Benny Yanger, Kid Goodwin, and others, have fallen victims to the surprisingly clever and rapid-hitting lad from the Windy City.

Worthy Opponent.
But good as he must be, McFarland will find that he has a worthy foe in Tommy Murphy.

The Roanoke B. and A. C. is the name of the club, to be opened on Irvington street. The promoters yesterday closed the deal for the premises and will begin at once to fit the place up. It is their intention to build a gallery around the arena and the seats on the floor will all be on a level. There will be no bleachers. The ring will be a portable one, so that when the arena is not being used for boxing it will be available for other sports which the club will conduct.

Amateur Meeting.
The opening meeting will be held in about three weeks and it will be between amateurs. After that boxers from the professional ranks will be matched. Whether or not decisions will be given in the contests is to be left to members. If a majority favor decisions being given this will be done.

Joseph McManey has been selected as matchmaker.

Tommy Quill, of Brooklyn, and Cyclone Thompson, probably be put on for the opening bout.

TRI-STATE SECURE FOR ANOTHER YEAR

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22.—No matter how it is pestered by new leagues which will oppose it in several cities on its circuit, the position of the Tristate League is secure.

The best reason for their belief is that it survived three seasons, two of which were as black and turbulent as any baseball circuit has seen.

Think what turmoil the Tristate League has passed through, and that it fought the American and National leagues to a tie, and the opposition of the united baseball forces of the country couldn't force the little Tristate to ask for quarter.

True, it made peace with protected baseball, but it was an honorable capitulation in which the big leagues had to grant more concessions than the smaller body. The big leagues took the initiative to end the war, and peace was obtained because the Tristate received demands which caused them to take up the fight.

Today the Tristate, now free from war and its tremendous cost, and supported by the combined leagues of the country, is in a stronger position than ever before.

To form that a new outlaw league, recently formed here, will not be able to Tristate, with its aggressive and moneyed stockholders, out of business, is the malicious fable of a paper which has consistently attempted to destroy rather than to build.

EXPLAINS PARK RULE FOR NON-SKID WHEELS

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Because of misunderstanding among automobilists of the new order issued by the park department excluding autos with chains on the tires from certain roadways, President Henry Smith, of the department, yesterday explained it more fully.

Many letters from owners of automobiles have been received by the park department since the newspapers published the new rules, and several clerks have been kept busy answering telephone calls.

"Automobiles with chains on the tires are excluded hereafter from all roadways in Central Park, Riverside Drive, and the Cathedral Parkway," said Smith. "While the park department has jurisdiction over Fifth avenue from Fifty-ninth street to 140th street, West End avenue, the rule regarding chains on tires will not be applied to them."

"Chains may be used there by automobilists as heretofore, subject to the usual traffic conditions."

NEW YORK CYCLE RUN FOR NEW YEAR DAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The twentieth annual New Year run of the Associated Cycling Clubs this year promises to be the most interesting ever held.

The committee in charge has already received double the number of prizes of any previous year. In addition to the annual silver trophies, most of which have been ridden for eight years in succession, gold medals will be awarded to the first cyclist and motorcycleist to arrive at Yonkers and Tarrytown, respectively. In keeping with the historic custom there will be four decorated magnificence of champagne as first prizes for the contestants at each finishing point.

In addition to these historic and honorary trophies a list of twenty-four prizes, made up of bicycles, tires, gas lamps, speed Pumps, saddles and chains has been donated by the leading manufacturers throughout the country.

Every amateur cyclist or motorcyclist is eligible to enter the run. The Associated Cycling Clubs has annually conducted this run and defrayed its expenses with the object of properly beginning the new year with a send-off for the wheelmen.

No Holiday Rest For Philadelphia Boxers and Fans

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22.—There will be no shut-down in the boxing industry in this city and vicinity during the holiday season.

Willie Moody and Young Loughney will fight at Spring Garden A. C. tonight. On Tuesday Mike Donovan, of Rochester, and Jack Blackburn will engage in a ten-round contest at Reeling. Of the five bouts at the National A. C. matinee on Christmas, the principal one will be between Joe Gaffigan, of Chicago, and Young Ernie; Mickey Gannon, of Pittsburgh, and George Jansen, of New York; and Tommy Sullivan, of Lawrence, and Eddie Chambers.

At the Wayne A. C. Christmas night, Freddie Welch, of England, will face Eddie Carter. Joe Walcott and Eddie Chambers will meet in the mid-air at the Broadway A. C. on Thursday. Jimmy Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., will meet the best man who can be secured at the Industrial Boxing Club on Friday, and the National will hold another show on Saturday night.
